

Holidays houses

These holiday accommodations of various sizes are ideal for those who want to feel like home while being on holiday. Step into a Burgundian's shoes living in a beautiful Brionnais dwelling or in a former hunting lodge.

Seasonal letting is the rental of a furnished apartment belonging to a private individual or in a holiday apartment block, a townhouse or a guesthouse in the country, in accordance with the regulations in force. A written contract and an inspection of the rental are required.