

Musée du Hiéron

Behind a monumental facade of classical appearance, the Hieron museum hides an astonishing eclectic architecture with a framework in metal and glass inspired by Gustave Eiffel. It has recently been extensively renovated by the city of Paray-le-Monial, which has given a new life to the building and its collections.

